Re: Merger Announcement

SurePath Solutions Inc. of Calgary, AB Canada, is very pleased to announce its merger with Canadian Project Partners. The merger, completed in February 2010, brings together two companies into a single entity and single brand, "Canadian Project Partners".

SurePath Solutions and Canadian Project Partners have experienced significant business growth in recent years. These two companies have been successful in developing value-based services for their customers with a view to building long-term relationships. The combination of the resources and expertise in the merged entity will allow for a seamless and coordinated approach to delivery of greater value to customers.

Effective February 1, 2010, our contact (for correspondence, billing, payments, etc) has changed to:
